

BRETT JOSEF C. GALVEZ

PROFILE

As an individual with deep passion, interest and dedication to the world of technology, I find joy in coding and all things related to the field. I am an aspiring developer may it be full-stack, frontend or backend.

My university days has been useful in refining my skills in coding fundamentals, data structures, and problem-solving. One of the most rewarding aspects of my experience has been the opportunity to lead and collaborate with exceptional teams on diverse projects, resulting to the delivery of excellent end products.
